

▷ KASI has been launched a new NEO Survey Telescope development project

“Surveying southern sky to find NEO & PHA”

- Development of a 1.5m class telescope and installed in southern hemisphere
- 5 year project(2020~2024) and budget is secured by the government

Current work status

- Benchmarking and cooperation with NASA Catalina Sky Survey (CSS) program is on going : operation and pipeline development
- System design to be started in 2020 in the second quarter with NOAO team